

WBFS-TV QUARTERLY ISSUES/PROGRAMS LIST
OCTOBER 1 THROUGH DECEMBER 31, 2011

Attached are listings of broadcasts or broadcast segments that, in the Station's judgment, reflect the Station's most significant programming treatment of ascertained issues during the preceding three-month period. The Station produced and broadcast public service announcements promoting local community events and campaigns.

FOCUS ON SOUTH FLORIDA- A half-hour public affairs broadcast featuring panel discussions and interviews with community leaders, focusing on important issues of local concern. Broadcast dates and times as indicated in the report.

NEIGHBORS 4 NEIGHBORS HOLIDAY SPECIAL: "HELPING FEELS GOOD" - A half-hour special consisting of a series of reports showing how CBS4's Neighbors 4 Neighbors provided support and assistance to South Florida residents in need during 2011. Broadcast dates and times as indicated on the report.

FAMILY: Topics in this category include: book about relationships; programs for Latin American orphans; program for victims of domestic violence; program to feed the poor; program that helps troops abroad; problems of homeless children; holiday help for families in need; and program that helps disaster victims.

FOCUS ON SOUTH FLORIDA: 10/2, 10 AM. Mike George, author of “7 Myths About Love, Actually!” discussed the real meaning of love in romantic and family relationships. 10/16, 10 AM. Ana Martinez, regional development manager at Friends of the Orphans, and Alfredo Benitez, Friends of the Orphans liaison discussed the star-studded gala which supports Friends of the Orphans and children in nine Latin American and Caribbean countries. 10/23, 10 AM. Mary Riedel, president and CEO of Women in Distress of Broward County discussed SAFE Walk – Run 5K for Women in Distress, an event that raises funds to help victims of domestic violence. 10/23, 10 AM. Chef Dee Lennox, president of the Fort Lauderdale chapter of the American Culinary Federation discussed Gourmet For HOPE a program where some of South Florida’s best chefs present a food and wine gala that benefits HOPE Worldwide, a charity that feeds the poor. 11/6, 10 AM. Lauren Ackerman, community affairs coordinator of America’s Moms for Soldiers discussed how this South Florida organization brings a touch of home to U.S. troops in Afghanistan and Iraq. 12/4, 10 AM. Laura Chiarello, Miami-Dade County Public Schools discussed South Florida’s homeless children, the youngest victims of the economic downturn and what South Florida can do to help them. 12/11, 10 AM. Nicole Maristany, producer for Neighbors 4 Neighbors discussed Adopt a Family For the Holidays a program that helps struggling South Florida families have a brighter holiday season. 12/18, 10 AM. Sofia Santana, communications director, American Red Cross, South Florida Region discussed the American Red Cross Holiday Catalog holiday donation program that helps victims of natural disasters. 10/30, 10 AM. Erin Healy, founder, Youth L.E.A.D. Miami discussed this program that helps teens fight obesity by learning how to make healthy food choices. 10/30, 10 AM. Shelley Goren, CEO of Gilda’s Club South Florida, and Andrea John Baptiste, co-chair of Save the Twinz discussed how these two organizations teamed up to raise awareness of breast cancer screening and treatment among African-American women. NEIGHBORS 4 NEIGHBORS HOLIDAY SPECIAL: “HELPING FEELS GOOD”: 11/27, 10 AM. This report focused on the case of f twin one year-old brothers who were in desperate need of some medical attention their family couldn’t afford and showed how through a generous donation from a viewer through Neighbors 4 Neighbors, they got the help they needed. NEIGHBORS 4 NEIGHBORS HOLIDAY SPECIAL: “HELPING FEELS GOOD” 11/27, 10 AM. This report focused on members of a local community who reached out to the Neighbors 4 Neighbors Family Fund to help one of their neighbors in need of a new heart.

HEALTH: Topics in this category include: healthy meal choices for students; fundraising for breast cancer programs; fundraising for cancer programs; program that teaches students healthy eating habits; raising awareness of breast cancer for African-American women; medical help for needy babies; and help for heart patient.

FOCUS ON SOUTH FLORIDA: 10/9, 10 AM. Penny Parham, administrative director of the Miami-Dade County Public Schools' Department of Food and Nutrition, and Susan Rothstein, wellness coordinator for the Miami-Dade County Public Schools discussed a new program that provides Miami-Dade public school students healthy food choices for purchase at school vending machines. In another segment, Sherri Martens-Curtis, supporter of Susan G. Komen for the Cure discussed the fundraising efforts that she organizes to raise money for the local affiliate of the Susan G. Komen for the Cure. 10/23, 10 AM. Bonnie Mandich and Esther Peart, Dolphins Cycling Challenge discussed this two-day cycling event to raise money for the Sylvester Comprehensive Cancer Center.

EDUCATION: Topics in this category include: program that trains local musicians; students developing leadership skills; athletes honor educational excellence and diversity; youth program for self expression through the arts; athlete author that inspires low-income youth; program that empowers students through fashion; and donation of running shoes for student runners.

FOCUS ON SOUTH FLORIDA: 10/2, 10 AM. Marjorie Hahn, executive and musical director, and Patty Lefevre, president, South Florida Youth Symphony discussed this program that trains student musicians to perform and appreciate classical music. 10/16, 10 AM. Javier Alberto Soto, president and CEO of the Miami Foundation discussed the "Engaged Youth" Program that gives high school students the opportunity to explore South Florida's diversity and learn leadership skills. 12/4, 10 AM. Vernon Martin, student activities director, and Zachary Rinkins, public affairs coordinator, Florida Memorial University discussed FMU Day at Sun Life Stadium, a day when the Miami Dolphins honor educational excellence and cultural diversity at Florida Memorial University. 12/4, 10 AM. Calvin Early, Youth Expressions discussed how this South Florida non-profit encourages at-risk teens to express themselves and grow through hip-hop and urban art. 12/11, 10 AM. Cilk McSweeney, athlete/entrepreneur, and author of From the Pit to the Palace discussed his "rags to riches" autobiography and how he lectures to provide inspiration to young people living in poverty. 12/18, 10 AM. Gail Clarke, president and CEO of the Teen Board Foundation, and Alberto de las Casas of FARA Formula Racing discussed this auto racing event that benefits The Teen Board, a group that uses interest in modeling and fashion to empower teens. NEIGHBORS 4 NEIGHBORS HOLIDAY SPECIAL: "HELPING FEELS GOOD." 11/27, 10 AM. This report focused on a story about a local teacher that requested help from Neighbors 4 Neighbors to find proper running shoes for her low-income students to enable them to compete in an upcoming race. The report showed how a local sporting goods store responded to the call for help and donated shoes for all of the students.

CRIME/LAW: Topics in this category include: profile of a young criminal; lawyers helping children; free legal services for the poor; and crime prevention program for children.

FOCUS ON SOUTH FLORIDA: 10/2, 10 AM. CBS4 News Chief I-Team Investigator Michele Gillen discussed a recent interview with Lionel Tate, the youngest person ever to be sentenced to life for the murder of a playmate and his life behind bars. 11/6, 10 AM. Sorraya Solages, president of the Young Lawyers Section, Dade County Bar Association discussed an event that benefits local children presented by the Young Lawyers Section of the Dade County Bar Association. 11/20, 10 AM. Vivian Chavez and Stephen Lewis, attorneys with Legal Services of Greater Miami discussed the Legal Help for the Poor program at Legal Services of Greater Miami which provides help in civil matters for residents who can't afford to hire an attorney. 11/20, 10 AM. Anthony Henderson, Kappa Alpha Psi Fort Lauderdale alumni chapter, and Ann Lee, Miramar Police Athletic League discussed the "Men R Kook'n" For a Great Cause event organized by the men of the Fort Lauderdale alumni chapter of Kappa Alpha Psi and the Miramar Police Athletic League to raise funds for children crime prevention programs.

ENVIRONMENT/CULTURE: Topics in this category include: event that promotes environmental awareness; book festival that promotes literature and culture; conference that celebrates cultural diversity through music; music festival promoting community involvement and environmental awareness; theatre program for children; and grants for organizations promoting the arts.

FOCUS ON SOUTH FLORIDA: 11/6, 10 AM. Mayor Richard Kaplan of Lauderhill, and Patti Hamilton, vice president, Southern Waste Systems discussed Broward Green Expo, a free local event that spotlights green technology and environmental consciousness. 11/13, 10 AM. Alina Interian, executive director, Miami Book Fair International discussed how this ten-day local event has grown into one of the world's biggest celebrations of books and culture. 11/13, 10 AM. Dr. William Alexis, cardiologist, and Pastor Ludence Robinson, Jr., education director, Antioch Missionary Baptist Church of Miami Gardens discussed the Perfecting Music Conference, a celebration of diversity and well-being that includes a career and job fair, a health and wellness fair, and music workshops. 11/13, 10 AM. Alfonso D'Niscio Brooks, producer, Bayside Rocks Festival discussed this South Florida musical event that features family fun, community involvement, and environmental awareness. 11/20, 10 AM. Barbara Stein, executive producing director, Actors Playhouse, and Earl Maulding, director of Actors Playhouse Theatre for Young Audiences discussed the Actors Playhouse's performances and programs that introduce children to the performing arts. 12/11, 10 AM. Marc Fest, John S. and James L. Knight Foundation, and Anita Darbonne, Little Haiti Cultural Center discussed The Knight Arts Challenge awards grants to South Florida artists and organizations, including the Little Haiti Cultural Center.

DISABILITIES: Topics in this category include: cooking program for the visually impaired; fundraising for the physically and mentally challenged; raising funds for Special Olympics; and dance program for people with special needs.

FOCUS ON SOUTH FLORIDA: 10/9, 10 AM. Ren'ee Rentmeester, creator and executive producer, "Cooking Without Looking," and Dr. Zachary Segal, Medeye Associates discussed "Cooking Without Looking" a television show that demonstrates what blind and visually impaired people can do in the kitchen and in everyday life. 10/16, 10 AM. Frank Casale, executive director, Schott Communities, and Dave Shula, Run, Walk & Roll event co-chair discussed a fundraising event that supports programs for physically and mentally challenged adults at the Schott Communities. 10/30, 10 AM. Mark Thompson, executive director, Special Olympics Miami-Dade County discussed a special fashion show that benefits South Florida's Special Olympians. 12/18, 10 AM. Karen Peterson, artistic director, Karen Peterson and Dancers explained how her South Florida dance company brings the joy and self-expression people with special needs.